Who we are

Aged & Community Services SA & NT Inc (ACS SA&NT) is the peak industry body representing over 95% of the not-for-profit aged & community sector in South Australia and an increasing number of members within the Northern Territory. ACS SA&NT is truly representative of a wide range of community, retirement housing and high and low care residential providers.

Our members provide nursing home, hostel, independent living units, serviced apartments, respite care and community care services through over 600 separate services operated by our members.

- 38 members operate in excess 2,400 CACPs
- 11 members operate 144 EACHPs
- 64 members provide in excess of 301 HACC programs
- 26 members operate in excess 47 Day Therapy Centres
- 102 members operate 7,299 Low Care Beds
- 79 members operate 5,059 High Care Beds
- 71 members operate 7,203 IL & RFU units

ACS SA&NT strives to provide all members with practical information and support in operating aged care facilities and community care services, in what is a dynamic, challenging and rapidly growing service sector. ACS SA&NT assist our members by promoting their work to the community and to Governments, and by keeping them informed of matters which affect their operations.

Membership of ACS SA&NT is open to organisations serving older South Australians and Northern Territorians operating as church, charitable, community or State and Local Government service providers.

Associate Membership is open to any entity (including government bodies), the main activities of which are to provide residential care and/or community services or residential housing and also to any entity (including government bodies) engaged in research, promotion, advocacy or other activity which is reasonably intended to advance the objects of the Association.

Organisations supplying services or equipment to villages, care facilities and community services are also welcome to become corporate members as a Sponsor or Industry Supporter.

Aged & Community Services SA&NT Inc is proudly affiliated with Aged & Community Services Australia, and the Federation, in order to maintain links with Australia's Federal Government and promote our members' services at the national level. To assist in benefiting the industry, ACS SA&NT works with other state Associations (when consistent with its objectives) to ensure a national voice is heard.

Our Mission, Vision and Value Statement

Mission

To support and credibly represent ACS member organisations who provide aged and community care services in the best interests of older people. ACS will achieve this in a professional and ethical manner through advocacy, sector promotion, collaboration, education and significant contribution to aged care policy development.

Ten-year vision (2009–2019) for aged and community care

ACS envisions a future for aged and community care in SA and NT where aged and community care services, systems and providers operate collaboratively (where appropriate) so that service provision is person-centered, access to services is simplified, individual choice is encouraged and service delivery is sustainable and seamless. Excellence in all facets of service provision to members will be the underlying premise.

Values and qualities

As part of the ACSA National Federation, ACS models and promotes the following values and qualities in all its undertakings and activities:

- Unity: Collaborating, cooperating and building partnerships to advance our mission.
- Integrity: Acting in a sincere, informed, transparent and ethical manner.
- Social responsibility: Supporting members to provide access to aged and community services for people who need them, including those who have special needs.
- Excellence: Continually seeking and implementing that which is the very best in each sphere of activity.
- Respect: Showing an understanding and appreciation of the values, abilities, experiences and contributions from others.
- Openness: Valuing new ideas, opportunities, innovation and alternative views.
- Boldness: Acting with courage, conviction and resilience in all our endeavours.

Code of Practice

In pursuit of excellence in Aged Care, members of Aged & Community Services SA & NT Inc believe and assert all persons seeking and receiving care and services:

- Have the same rights as any citizen, and that these rights are not diminished when the ability to exercise them is reduced. Furthermore, aged persons have the right to live with dignity and enjoy the respect of those who support them.
- Have a right to self determination and as far as possible, to live in the same manner and circumstances as other citizens living in the community.
- Will be provided with information setting out the Aims and objectives of the management.
- Will be given a clear statement in writing of the terms under which services are offered and have ready access to a recognized and simple mechanism for dispute resolution, together with the right to confidentiality over personal information and records.

- Have access to the health, remedial and advocacy services of their own choice which are available in the community together with the right to receive services in accordance with statutory requirements.

To these ends, we affirm our commitment to the employment, training and support of the best staff and volunteers available.

Objectives of the Association

The objects of the Association are to:

1. Promote the interests of members
2. Encourage co-operation and understanding between members
3. Give assistance, advice and support to members
4. Promote the provision of appropriate care for aged or disabled persons including community, residential and domiciliary services and support for carers
5. Promote awareness of the needs of aged and disabled persons
6. Promote community awareness of the work, aims and needs of members.
7. Obtain and distribute information to the members in relation to:
 - the provision of accommodation, care and support of aged or disabled persons
 - existing and proposed legislation and government controls
 - administration and financial matters
 - training opportunities
8. Influence and develop philosophies, policies and programmes for the care and well being of aged and disabled persons
9. Make representations and submissions to governments, courts, boards, commissions, committees or any other body or tribunal on matters affecting the interests of members or their client group
10. Make public statements and issue publications (in any form whatsoever) on any matters relating to the provision of accommodation, care or support of aged or disabled persons
11. Promote, encourage and engage in research and investigation into the general provision of all types of accommodation, care or support of aged or disabled persons
12. Encourage and assist with the development and provision of educational programs aimed at improving standards for care of the aged or disabled persons
13. Carry out such other activities which are incidental to, or consistent with these objectives.

Becoming a Member

Aged & Community Services SA&NT Inc welcomes new members to the Association and is open to all operators of care and accommodation services for the aged or disabled people, at the following levels:

- Not-for-profit member
- Associate Membership
- Industry Supporter
- Sponsorship Program
- Friend of ACS SA&NT

Not-for-profit Membership

Membership of the Association shall, upon payment of the prescribed Membership fee, be open:

- To a benevolent association or organisation, as may be determined by the Board of Management, receiving or entitled to receive assistance pursuant to any statute through which subsidies are payable to benevolent associations or organisations which provide or intend to provide residential and/or care and/or community services for aged or disabled persons and their carers in the State of South Australia and the Northern Territory of Australia
- To such other benevolent associations or organisations as may be determined by the Board of Management. In making a determination pursuant to this rule, the Board of Management shall have regard to the mutuality of interest between such association or organisation and Aged and Community Services SA & NT Incorporated.

Membership fees are calculated on the basis of the number and type of services operated. Fees are calculated on a pro-rata basis after September of each year. (See Membership Fees)

Associate Members

Associate Membership is open to any entity (including government bodies) the main activities of which are to provide residential care and/or community services or residential housing, and also to any entity (including government bodies) which is engaged in research, promotion, advocacy or other activity which is reasonably intended to advance the objects of the Association.

As an Associate Member, entities shall have the same rights, privileges and obligations as Members other than the right to vote at Annual or Special Meetings of the organisation.

Membership fees are calculated on the basis of the number and type of services operated. Fees are calculated on a pro-rata basis after September. (See Membership Fees)

Industry Supporter Program

ACS SA&NT developed an Industry Supporter Program in response to numerous requests from representatives with a commercial interest in Aged Care. Their wish was to be able to work in partnership with members of the Association in order to share knowledge of services and products, as well as being offered the opportunity to network with staff of facilities.

Organisations supplying services or equipment to villages, care facilities and community services are welcome to become Industry Supporters.

Industry Supporter fees are $1,000 plus GST per annum and invoiced upon receipt and approval of application form. The fee is charged per financial year and for those who join part way through a year a pro-rata rate to the closest three months is given.

For Industry Supporter benefits see the Industry Supporter section of this kit.

Sponsorship Program

ACS Sponsors are businesses who are significant supporters of the aged and community care industry. Our sponsors provide goods and services across the full range of businesses that supply to aged care providers.

ACS is committed to developing beneficial relationships with its Sponsors, particularly those who express a long-term commitment to providing exemplary services in the aged care industry. ACS Sponsors are entitled to "first offer and priority choice" on sponsorship opportunities including seminar sponsorship, trade displays and advertising opportunities at a range of ACS events in 2010/2011.

Event sponsorship and trade opportunities allow businesses and members to conduct business in an environment free from the pressure of day-to-day demands. For further information about sponsorship please contact Business Development Manager Anthony Cecere on 8338 7111.

Friends of ACS SA&NT

Open to organisations such as peak bodies and government departments who wish to be informed of the activities within the aged care sector.

Friends of ACS SA&NT fees are $350 including GST per annum and invoiced upon receipt of application form and approval from the ACS SA&NT Executive Committee. The fee is charged per financial year and for those who join part way through a year a pro-rata rate to the closet three months is given.

Friends of ACS SA&NT receive the following benefits:

- Electronic member newsletters Snippets and News Bites

Industry Supporters Benefits

ACS developed its Industry Supporter Program in response to numerous requests from representatives with a commercial interest in Aged Care. Industry Supporters are companies who wish to work in partnership with ACS members to share knowledge of services and products, and network with staff of member providers. ACS is the perfect means for this network as it provides its membership with the latest directions and trends, advice and management support in providing care to the elderly people of South Australia and the Northern Territory.

ACS Industry Supporters have the opportunity to present products and services to a targeted audience, many of whom are at the 'point of purchase' or developing their plans for future expansion or development.

Industry Supporter fees are $1000 plus GST per annum and invoiced upon receipt and approval of application form. The fee is charged per financial year and for those who join part way through a year a pro-rata rate to the closest three months is given.

The aged and community care sector is a rapidly expanding industry and ACS SA & NT Inc can help you get your message and products to this sector by providing your business with advertising & sponsorship opportunities which will assist you in reaching this burgeoning market.

In a competitive and rapidly changing environment, strategic alliances have become essential for maintaining leadership and position in the market place. A strategic alliance with Aged & Community Services SA & NT Inc as an Industry Supporter will give you:

- A better understanding of current and future market opportunities for your business
- Useful contacts with leading thinkers and innovators in the industry
- The opportunity to demonstrate your commitment to ethical practices
- Listing in the ACS SA&NT Annual Report

Being aware of what is happening in the aged and community care sector is an important part of operating any business. As an Industry Supporter you will receive up-to-date and relevant information on what is happening through:

- Annual subscription to ACS's e-news publications Snippets and News Bites
- Access to the ACS website members-only section
- Four copies of ACSA's quarterly national newsletter, Agendas
- Attendance at ACS Forums/training sessions at member rates

Having access to networking opportunities with providers of aged and community care services will enable you to showcase your services and products and identify the needs of the sector. Networking opportunities for Industry Supporters are available through:

- Invitation to attend the annual 'drinks & nibbles' with Members
- Attendance at ACS forums/training sessions (at member rates)
- Discounted 'priority choice' trade opportunities at ACS designated training and forums, where trade opportunities are offered @ 20% discount of normal fee.

Industry Supporters can promote their services to the ACS membership in the following ways:

- Twelve months of your logo appearing on the ACS website homepage
- Distribution of promotional flyers through direct mail-outs to members as negotiated
- Free listing (includes logo and contact details) and link on the ACS website
- Free distribution of promotional material at one ACS Seminar or Conference per year
- Priority choice of sponsorship opportunities for ACS Seminars/training sessions
- Periodic showcasing of Industry Supporters in one of our member communications.

Advertising to Members of ACS SA&NT

ACS SA&NT provides many opportunities for commercial advertising. Advertising through ACS SA&NT ensures direct access to a target audience, many of whom are making the day to day decisions on the purchase of equipment and/or services for their operations in providing care to the elderly people of South Australia and Northern Territory.

Annual Report – Advertising in the ACS SA&NT Annual Report is only available to Industry Supporters. Industry Supporters are invited to purchase a 1/2 page ad in the Annual Report published in October of each year. The Annual Report is sent to each member and subscriber of ACS SA&NT and is available as a download from the ACS SA&NT website.

Annual General Meeting – An opportunity exists for an Industry Supporter to be the major sponsor of the ACS SA&NT Annual General Meeting held in October each year. The sponsor of the Annual General Meeting will have their logo and name on all promotional material including the agenda, acknowledgement of sponsorship on the day of the AGM, the option of providing written material on the day (brochure) and a 5 minute speaking opportunity.

Snippets – Snippets is an online monthly publication that is made available to all employees of ACS SA&NT members and subscribers. The distribution list is in excess of 1,000 readers. An opportunity exists for an exclusive annual sponsorship/advertising rights to Snippets. This will entail your logo being seen on every edition of Snippets, an opportunity to provide regular editorial to be published in Snippets and a company profile published twice year.

Website – The ACS SA&NT website home page provides an opportunity for companies to place their logo (linked to own website) for a one-month period (maximum of three consecutive months). Please note that only three logos can appear on the ACS SA&NT website home page at any one time. Industry Supporters receive one month free as part of their benefits.

For further information on Advertising opportunities please contact Anthony Cecere, Business Development Manager business@agedcommunity.asn.au or (08) 8338 7111.
