

Imagine if all health professional's were able to adopt a person centred approach to improving the wellbeing of people with Dementia.

If you are passionate about improving the wellbeing of people with dementia, understand the importance of focusing on the individual needs of people with dementia, and want to contribute to the education of others – then this is an opportunity for you!

Short-term Project based Dementia Education Writer Opportunities
(Flexible employment options are available e.g. secondment, direct employment or consultancy based opportunities)

The SA & NT Dementia Training Study Centre (SA & NT DTSC) is a project of Alzheimer's Australia SA Inc and has been funded as part of the Australian Government's Dementia Initiative to develop the dementia skills of existing and future health care professionals.

The SA & NT DTSC is seeking one or more professionals to work on Centre projects in a short-term and/or seconded capacity, to commence work in November 2008.

Working arrangements will be flexible with requirements focusing on the achievement of set outcomes over a defined project period but extending no further than to 30th June 2009.

- The Centre is looking for suitably qualified and/or experienced professionals for:
- The development of a set of dementia related modules covering behaviour and wellbeing for people with dementia; and/or
 - The collation and development of dementia related content for integration within tertiary curriculum for delivery for health professionals.

Suitable applicants will need to demonstrate:

- An extensive knowledge of dementia including a person centred approach, promotion of wellbeing, changed behaviour; and
- Experience in educational writing at a tertiary level is desirable.

The position(s) will be based in Adelaide.

Expressions of interest addressing the experience and qualifications detailed above, along with a current CV, can be sent to: Ms Maggie Cecchin, Director, SA & NT DTSC, 27 Conyngham St, Glenside, SA 5065; or by email: dtsc@alzheimerssa.asn.au, and are to be received by Monday, 20th October 2008.

Enquiries about these opportunities and projects can be made to: Ms Alicen McNaughton, Project Manager, SA & NT DTSC, mob. 0428 389 538, email: alicen@alzheimerssa.asn.au.