

THE NATIONAL AGEING RESEARCH INSTITUTE

INVITES YOU TO

A FREE HALF - DAY FORUM

“CARING IS NO ACCIDENT”

DISSEMINATION OF FINDINGS OF THE “FALLS AND OTHER ADVERSE EVENTS AT HOME AND IN RESPITE CARE TRANSITION FOR OLDER CARE RECIPIENTS” PROJECT

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

- ♦ What falls prevention evidence is there for community dwelling older persons and within residential care settings?
- ♦ What is the “Caring is No Accident” project all about?
- ♦ What influences falls risk among care recipients living at home with an informal carer?
- ♦ How are the carers faring with regards to health and well-being?
- ♦ How well did carers and care recipients manage accidents over the 12 month study period?
- ♦ What was the impact of residential respite care?
- ♦ What implications do these findings have?
- ♦ Launch of resources for carers

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM ATTENDING?

- ♦ Policy makers
- ♦ Carer agency representatives
- ♦ Community organisation representatives
- ♦ Residential facility staff
- ♦ Formal care workers
- ♦ Falls prevention researchers

WHEN - Wednesday 17th
September 2008

TIME - 9:00 - 11:45 am

WHERE - 1st floor, Education
Development Centre,
Milner St, Hindmarsh

Bookings essential

RSVP 10th September 2008

to

Carolyn Jones on (03) 8387 2614

c.jones@nari.unimelb.edu.au

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE PROVIDED

This project is funded by the Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing