

General Practice Network South Inc. presents
‘Getting Better in the South - Delivering on safe high quality care’

The first regional forum on Safety and Quality in Health Care across the primary and acute care sectors.

Key outcomes from the forum include to:

- Develop a network of leaders to inform policy and drive the development of safety and quality across the acute and primary care sectors in the south.
- Promote future collaboration on Safety and Quality issues between regions.

Program:

- 1. Setting the scene - A panel presentation outlining our current knowledge and reform directions, with representatives from:
  - SA Health and Department of Health & Ageing (Michele McKinnon & TBA)
  - Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care (Prof Chris Baggoley)
  - WHO Patients for Patient Safety (Stephanie Newell)
- 2. Setting priorities - for our regions and communities using the National Safety & Quality Framework
Ways forward - using existing resources and building on leadership

When: Friday 24 September 2010, 9.15am to 4.00pm

Where: Balyana Conference Centre, 46 Strathcona Avenue, Clapham

Who: The key safety and quality leader in your organisation

---

To register your attendance, please fax your details to Charmaine Bowers on Freefax 1800 632 193 or by email charmaine.bowers@gpns.org.au by Thursday 16 September 2010

‘Getting Better in the South - Delivering on safe high quality care’

Name: ..... Position: .....

Organisation: ..... Contact no: .....

Email: .....

Special dietary requirements: .....